SOCIAL SAYINGS AND DOINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Leiter entertained a company of nearly 200 guests at a musicale last night at which the performers were the Russian choir, who first came to this country at the time of the World's Fair, and since its close have been making a tour of the United States. The singers came from New York yesterday afternoon for the especial purpose of giving the musicale. A unique and interesting feature of the occasion was in the singers wearing their national costumes, the gay apparel of the peasantry adding tenfold to the enjoyment experienced by the guests in listening to the folk songs of great and little Russia.

The performers were grouped about the north end of the splendid ballroom, in which the decorations are in white and gold, with tall candelabra rising on gither side of the immense open fireplace that from floor to ceiling is of Mexican onyx. About the room the walls are decorated in ornate floral designs, and the ceiling is quartefied in white and gold. The handings and couches are of tapestry, in colors to harmonize with the generally light effect. The handsome surroundings, the picturesque effect of the Russian co-tumes and the unusual character of the music, all combined to reinder the occasion. The singers are a fine lot of lads, and they let their voices out in right royal style in songs that were samiliar to everyone. The hit of the evening was Mr. Hub Smith's "The Country Band,"

The manifolin and banjo clubs gave a splendid exhibition of their art in various numbers, and received much applaure. The clubs number twenty or more members, Among them is Mr. H. I. Gannett, of this city.

"You renember the condition I was in when I called on you in Washington. I had suffered from catarrh for thirteen years, and had scarcely known a well day in all that time. My stomach was in very bal shape, too, as I told you, and my sieep was broken. I wish you could see me now. Your treatment has worked wonders. No headache any more; appetite ravenous; nostrils op n; health apparently perfect. I shall continue the treatment until the two months are up, as you advise, but I feel now as if I were entirely cured. I shall be thankful to God and to you the rest of my life for this great happiness."

Such is the experience of all who submit their cases to Dr. Walker's treatment, for it is an unfailing cure for all disorders of the brain and blood, catarrh, asthma, consumption, malaria, rheumatism, dyspepsia, neuralita, hemorrhoids, diseases of women, loss of vitality, sexual weakness, and all affections of the lunus, throat, heart, liver, stomach, kilneys, bladder, bowels, and other organs.
